

WHO WE ARE:

Why Support EWHC?

"I have really enjoyed being a part of EWHC. As the past President, I am not as involved in the organization as I used to be, but I still help on sub-committees, and I have been involved in the Mentoring Program since 2019. The best part about EWHC is the amazing women I have gotten to know. I am so proud of the strength and growth of the organization over the years."

— Carla Hill, Director of Business Development at SmithGroup

"EWHC provides the opportunity to learn from other women leaders within the healthcare industry. Also, EWHC enables us to support each other's development as we grow in our own leadership roles to best serve others."

— Soula Banich, MHA, COO at IU Health North Hospital

Executive Women in Healthcare is a professional development and networking group for women in the healthcare industry in the Greater Indianapolis area. The purpose of our organization is to provide educational opportunities and leadership opportunities for our members to become agents of change for Indiana's health care industry and to learn from one another to build a comprehensive understanding of the industry.

Our Membership

Our members work at all levels in the health care industry including hospitals, clinics, medical practices, healthcare related businesses, healthcare provider associations, physicians, attorneys, consultants and CPAs.
